DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of Applicant's Amendment filed on 02/23/06. Claims 9-11 have been canceled. New claims 12-23 have been added. Claims 1-8 and 12-23 are pending in the instant application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 12, 13, and 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by MIXON (US 5,906,823).

Applicant's claims are directed to a glove that releases a disinfectant comprising: a base formed of polyvinyl chloride or polyurethane having a disinfectant therein.

MIXON disclosed an antimicrobial glove that released a disinfectant, such as triclosan (col. 2, line 56), in which the disinfectant is incorporated with the polyvinyl chloride or polyurethane (col. 2, line 56-59).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-8 and 12-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over MIXON (cited supra) in view of KHALILI et al (US 4,533,691) and WELLINGHOFF et al (WO 00/69775).

As discussed above, MIXON disclosed an antimicrobial glove that released a disinfectant, such as triclosan (col. 2, line 56), in which the disinfectant is incorporated with the polyvinyl chloride of polyurethane (col. 2, line 56-59).

MIXON does not specifically teach using chlorine dioxide as the disinfectant.

KHALILI teaches using chlorine dioxide formed from sodium chlorite as an antimicrobial agent for latex (abstract).

WELLINGHOFF teaches a composition that released chlorine dioxide when exposed to light (pg. 19, Example 1) in the presence of titanium oxide (pg. 19, line 8).

It would have been obvious to the person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate chlorine dioxide and titanium oxide into MIXON's antimicrobial glove. The person of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to make those modifications, because KHALIL's invention dealt with antimicrobial latex comprised of polyvinyl chloride polymers similar to MIXON's antimicrobial latex. Additionally, WELLINGTON suggested that there is a need for a photoactivated chlorine dioxide antimicrobial material in contact with food packaging and humans (pg. 3, line 18-27). The person of ordinary skill in the art reasonably would have expected success, because all three references dealt with antimicrobial articles.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
